each member on booking a meeting room can bring upto 3 or 5 guests at any point (depending on room size). if female guests want to use the club beyond the meeting room hours booked - they need to pay for the day pass at inr 1000 + taxes per person. needless to say, male guests can't avail this.

are men allowed at the club?

we have one meeting room (3 seater) designated for meetings when men might need to come in. this one is right at the entrance for members to pre-book. once the meeting is done, the male guest leaves the premises, and doesn't get access to the rest of the club.

are kids allowed?

kids under the age of five are welcome at our club on non-event days until 5 pm. we request you to ensure that other members working are able to focus on their work while they're around :)

is parking/ valet available for cars?

we offer valet service to members. this is free of cost, but please note that parking is always on a first-come, first-serve basis.

how can non-members experience the club?

non-members can experience the club using a day pass. it can be booked for inr 1000 + taxes, applicable from monday to saturday, 10 am to 5 pm (on non event days). please note that our events are only for members and you cannot avail this under a day pass.

what is the range of the monthly event prices?

ticket prices range from inr 300-1000 depending on the event type.

is eating allowed within the club?

yes of course! feel free to carry your food, or order from zomato or the cafe downstairs – we have a designated pantry area for this!

what is the process for terminating my membership if needed?

once paid, membership fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. the visits can be used throughout the duration of the membership though.
